HASKELL TO MAKE PEACE

HAS TAKEN A POSITIVE STAND IN MEDICAL BOARD CONTROVERSY.

Enid Physician Is Requested to Make Resignation.

Oklahoma City, July 16.—Determined to make peace in the state board of examiners and to eliminate all political and recalcitrant members, Governor C. N. Haskell Friday, informed Dr. Frank P. Davis of Enid, secretary of the board, that his resignation was wanted and wired to Dr. J. D. Hensley, of Oklahoma City, who is in California, that there had been placed in the hands of the governor serious charges against him and asked how soon he (Dr. Hensley) would return.

Dr. T. W. Tilley of Muskogee, president of the state medical examiners, held a conference with Governor Haskell Thursday evening and placed before the chief executive, eight affidavits to the effect that Dr. Hensley had asked eight applicants for money, ranging from $10 to $25 each, promising them that he would use his influence in securing them certificates to practice in this state. He further, so he says, told the governor that unless Dr. Hensley was removed from the board that he would hand in his resignation to take effect immediately, and that he must know before he returned to his home Saturday morning.

Answer Awaited.

Governor Haskell left early Friday morning and up until a late hour Friday night no answer had been received from Dr. Hensley, who is at his summer home in California.

Dr. Tilley with Dr. A. M. Chamber, another member of the board, remained in Oklahoma City all Friday anxiously awaiting an answer from Dr. Hensley and a decision from Governor Haskell.

Dr. Tilley claims he is backed by the entire state medical board of examiners, in his fight on Hensley.

Dr. W. R. Bevan, secretary of the Oklahoma county Medical Society, said Friday that the society would take no further action in the Hensley-Tilley row. That if the charges placed against Dr. Hensley were true the Oklahoma County Medical society would assist in ousting him from the board, on the other hand if the charges were not true, it would continue its loyal support to the home colleague. He said the county society would wait until the matter was brought before Governor Haskell for his decision.

Dr. Bevan says the Oklahoma county Medical society will make a determined effort in prosecuting all members of the profession practicing in Oklahoma county who have not received a license in a legal and proper way. An investigation is now being made and the alleged impostors will be tried at the November session of the state medical board. It is believed that there are at least twelve doctors practicing in Oklahoma county who have no license or obtained them through fraud.

TWO MORE VICTIMS FALL

DEATH DEMON PLUCKS TWO MORE LIVES FROM THE AIR.

Brings Death List Up to Fourteen This Year, Total Number Victims 20.

Ghent, July 15.—The death demon today plucked two more human lives from the air, bringing the list of deaths for the year 1910 up to fourteen, and the total number of the victims of aviation up to twenty. Daniel, Kinet, an aviator who was injured in a fall last Sunday, died here from his injuries.

Viola Spencer, a parachute jumper, was killed at Coventry, England, Friday, according to a London dispatch. The parachute with which she was descending failed to open, and she fell with terrific force. Her body was mangled almost beyond recognition.

Kinet, who was a Belgian, was a widely known aeroplane operator and held the world's record for carrying passengers through the air.

No Society News This Week.

The usual Saturday evening's publication of the occurrences of the city society events during the week does not appear in this week's issue for the reason that no events are reported. The reason of the lack of occurrences of social events this week has been on account of the progress of the great revival meeting on Broadway.

GET THE HOMES OF AMERICA RIGHT

SUBJECT FOR LAST NIGHT'S REVIVAL SERVICES WAS "THE OLD FASHIONED HOME.

"Get the Homes of America Right and We Will Carry America for God."—Rev. E. E. Hendrick.

Last evening the big tent was filled to overflowing and many people were forced to stand on the outside. There was marked evidence of the increasing interest of the revival shown in the fervor of the singing and the close attention given the minister as he expounded the gospel.

Rev. Carter sang two songs the first "Memories of Mother" which undoubtedly drew all his hearers closer to Calvary and caused the love for mother to grow stronger and sweeter.

The second song, "Tell Mother I'll Be There," in which the congregation joined the chorus was sung with the fervor and expression that could not help causing those who heard to so resolve to live that in life's parting hour they could say in reality "I'll be there."

The old time religion was sung, Rev. Hendrick made the following announcements: "Beginning Monday morning we want to hold services in the bank or some business house with business men from 9:30 to 9:50. These will be good services. Some fellows would be glad to shut up and enjoy these services twenty minutes. Just sample one of them if you don't think they would. These are practical and helpful meetings for the men. We do not especially invite the women to these services because of the crowd. Further the evangelists stated he would carry the gospel anywhere; that there would be no services today only at night and expressed the hope of having a great Saturday night service.

Brother Wilson made the announcement to the Methodists that because of the union meeting which he considered of supreme importance, there would be only 15 minutes service at the First Methodist church Sunday morning from 10:45 to 11. Bro. Stubblefield desired the same announcement made for the First Baptist church.

Rev. Hendrick made an eloquent plea for the old fashioned home with its Christian influences emanating from a consecrated Christian mother. In part he said: I am sure that the dearest and most sacred spot on earth is home, but in every true home there is a ladder let down from heaven to earth. It has been said and truly said the hand that rocks the craddle rules the world. The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world and God eve nuses the influence that he gives the mother. Give me the children for ten years and you can get them if you can. My friends you have the right to expect your children to go to glory with you; train them so. All the influence in the world is measured by love and back of all is the consecrated mother. You cannot measure the love of mother. One of the greatest sins of America is that the old fashioned family altar has gone down. Mothers you pray to the Kingdom of God for the salvation of your children.

You remember, my friends, that good old fashioned home, the old room where you were tucked away to bed. Friends you can not get beyond the memory of that home.

Here he told the story of Henry W. Grady, coming back home to see his mother, and wanted to be a child again. When he in mature years asked to say, "Now I lay me down to sleep," at his mother's knee. I tell you friends you can not get beyond the time when mother said "Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name."

When President Cleveland was inaugurated president of the United States, the custom in taking the oath of office, was to have a new Bible, but he had one that was given him by his mother, and so preferred taking the oath on it.

Mr. Moody said he did not remember the time when he did not have prayer in the home. I urge upon you to pray God that you have the highest ambition for the salvation of your child. It is disgusting to see a society woman hold a puddle dog and let the servant hold the child. There will be no dogs in heaven and some society women will be out of a job. We are drifting away from the old fashined home. The sweet responsibilities of love in the home cannot be over estimated. I love to see the old fashioned level headed mothers. Here the minister suggested that a curb should be placed on some of the boys and girls of this town. That in the old fashioned home they had a "curfew" that never failed to bring them home in time. He stated that he believes in ruling children by love but not in sparing the rod and spoiling the child.

He condemned the practice some parents have in going to nearly every place of amusement with their children, but sending the children to church by themselves, causing the child to look upon the Sunday school and church as about the least thing in his life. He urged parents to take the children to church, not send them and inculcate a desire to seek after things righteous, and teach them by example to serve the Lord.

"We shall never quit singing, 'Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight,' until we sing, 'Where is My Father and Mother this Morning."

Speaking of the shaping of young lives at home the evangelist continued: If you have a deck of cards at home let me plead with you to burn them up, and if you have whiskey in your cupboard throw it in the ditch. Relative to voting on the liquor question the minister spoke in positive terms saying, the man who stood against the saloon is the man to receive his vote.

He lamented the fact that whiskey is kept in a good many homes and that using it freely in cooking encourages and developes an appetite in children for strong drink, concluding that as long as it was kept on the sideboards drunkenness would continue.

In his remarks about the dance he said that it did not take brains to make a dancer that a fool could dance—and censured the mother who would let her daughter attend balls, and take sides against the preacher if the latter should undertake to disuade or stop attendance upon these functions.

He closed with a tribute to the all guiding influence of a mother's love wanting all to prepare to meet the mothers who have gone before.

LABORERS BATTLE WITH BANDITS

CONSTRUCTION GANG, JUST PAID OFF, SWOOPED DOWN UPON BY ROBBERS.

Railroaders Who Were Sleeping in Open Air and Came to the Rescue.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 14.—One man is dying, two wounded and a possibility of other casualties is the result of a revolver battle tonight between three bandits and forty members of a construction gang on the Lake Shore railroad at North Olmstead, twenty miles southwest of here.

Today was pay day at the construction camp. Near midnight when the railroad men retired, the robbers made their appearance. They ordered the sleeping men from their beds, but four of their intended victims had decided to sleep in the open air on account of the heat.

The men from the bunks were aroused to face revolvers and were handing over their pay envelopes to the robbers when their companions on the outside opened fire. In a moment the shooting became general; for several minutes the battle continued and three railroad men fell, one of them shot fatally. Then the robbers took flight.

A telephone message to Cleveland apprised the authorities and Sheriff Hirstius with a posse of deputies started for the scene in automobiles. Posses have also been organized at all principal points throughout the county and a general pursuit has been started.

. . . .Expressions of Gratitude.

Mrs. Minnie Culver and Mr. J. A. Culver, the wife and father respectively, of the late lamented George Culver, chief of police of Ada, requests the News to state to the public an appropriate expression commensurating with their regards for the sympathetic action by the Ada people in connection with the untimely end of their loved one. They earnestly stated that they appreciated with all their hearts the showing of the friendly and sympathizing atttiude of the Ada public.

SOCIALISTS WILL FIGHT "GRANDPAPA CLAUSE"

Plan to Sue for Injunction on the Ground That Taylor Bill Is Not Constitutional.

Guthrie, Ok., July 15.—Contrary to expectations, the court fight on the "grandfather" amendment to the constitution to prevent a vote upon it on August 2 has not been dropped with the failure of the republican state committee to get an injunction against placing the proposition upon the ballot.

Patrick S. Nagle, attorney for the socialist party in Oklahoma, intends to file application in the district court here for an injunction against printing the proposed amendment upon the ballot on the ground that senate bill 126, by Taplor, which furnishes the legal machinery for its submission, is contrary to the constitution and void.

There are only three ways provided in the constitution for the submission of a proposed constitutional amendment; the first is joint resolution of the legislature; second by the initiative. third, by a constitutional convention. The Taylor bill provides that the initiation of an amendment shall be made pursuant to the concurrent resolution of the legislature suggesting the initiation and prescribing the form of the proposed amendment.

Attorney Nagle and the attorneys of the Republican state committee claim that the Taylor bill does not follow any form authorized by the constitution, and that it further violates the constitution, as it is so framed that all persons, failing to vote upon the proposed "grandfather" clause, but who vote for any of the officers on the primary ticket, are counted as casting a vote for the amendment.

The words "for the amendment" are to be printed upon each ballot bearing the party ticket. If a person desires to vote against the amendment he scratches out the words "for the amendment." If the ballot is cast with this wording left in the act the vote is counted in favor of the amendment.

SURPRISED KNIFE AND FORK CLUB

UNCLE JOE WAS AN UNEXPECTED GUEST WHEN PINCHOT WAS TO SPEAK.

Was Invited When His Presence in Kansas City was Discovered But Kept Silent.

Kansas City, July 15.—A surprise was sprung upon the members of the Knife and Fork Club of this city tonight, when "Uncle Joe" Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives appeared at the entrance of the club's banquet room, beside Gifford Pinchot, the club's guest of honor and the principal speaker of tonight.

The two men were given a rousing reception as Pinchot offered his arm to the speaker and started toward the guests' table.

"Uncle Joe" gently pushed Pinchot ahead, declining his arm, desiring to emphasize the fact that he realized the ex-forester was the specially invited guest of the evening.

Pinchot led the way to the banquet table, followed by Cannon, the former stationing himself at the right o fthe president of the club and the latter immediately at the president's left Cannon's appearance at the dinner was accidental, he said. He arrived here at 6 oclock, and left four hours later for Winfield, Kan., where he will begin his speech-making tour of the state tomorrow. Members of the club met him in the lobby of the hotel as they were assembling for dinner, and invited him to attend. He accepted.

"I do not see how I am to get out of it," he remarked. "I suppose I shall have to go in and visit with the boys."

It was before the Knife and Fork Club that Speaker Cannon made his speech attacking the insurgents a few months ago.

Pinchot spoke tonight on "Conservation of Our National Resources."

Cannon, before going into the banquet room said he would not make a speech tonight. Pinchot spoke in part as follows:

"When Congressman Tawney's amendment to the sundry civil bill, put a stop to the work of the national conservation commission, the National Conservation Association stepped into the breach and went on with the work.

"The association is on the firing line in the conservation fight. It is doing what would otherwise not be done. The men and women who compose it, are rendering genuine and satisfactory service in a great cause, that means great prosperity for our people now and hereafter. If the National Conservation Association was not in existence, there would be no organized effort to stop the plundering of coal lands, the appropriation of water sites by private interest and in general the absorption of our natural resources by those who have the smallest right to them."

I. HODGE, PROMINENT COUNTY FARMER LOSES ALL

Friday night, the 15th inst., the home of Mr. I. Hodge, prominent farmer residing seven miles southwest of Ada was burned through incendiary origin. There was nothing saved, all the contents, even the smokehouse beng destroyed. The family was at Center in attendance at an ice cream supper. It is thought that the house was robbed then set on fire. The estimated loss is $1,000.

Mr. R. T. Kreiger, at whose home at Center, Mr. Hodge and family was spending the night reported the loss to the News.

Mr. Hodge is a good citizen and it is thought that no other incentive than robbery could have produced the crime.

SO THE PEOPLE MAY KNOW TRUTH

Guthrie, Okla., July 11, 1910.

To the Public:

I wish to call attention to the following statement of expense incurred by the Corporation Commission incident to the campaign against adoption of the railroad amendment to the constitution, at the election June 11, 1910:

Printing	$ 847.87
Printing (German) hand bills	125.00
Extra help (mailing)	375.50
Time of Reg. Employes charged to campaign	483.33
Postage	950.00
Express	27.47
Total	$2,791.17

On the day preceding the election the largest newspaper in the state published an article charging the commission with having expended $50,000 of the people's money in the campaign, and claiming that an additional equal amount would be spent by the commission at the polls election day. I demanded publication of a statement over my signature on election day that I believed the amount would not exceed $2,500. The newspaper published the statement but changed the figure from $2,500 to $25,000. I call attention to this fact to show the desperate character of tactics resorted to in the effort to have the amendment adopted, and the extremes to which the railroads made their organ go in misrepresenting us. It shows the comparative insignificance of the actual cost to the people of the measures taken by this commission in giving them the information they wanted and were asking us to give them.

Had we not charged time of regular employes against the amendment campaign the total amount would be scarcely more than $2300. No extra pay was allowed employes for overtime and none was wanted. On the contrary the wives and children of our regular employes worked in the office both during the day and at night helping in the work without pay, and this fact helped greatly in keeping the cost down to such a low figure.

Many other factors helped. The commission's views of the effect of the amendment were explained to every visitor to this office and not one refused to take a quantity of literature on the subject to his home locality and distribute it. We have a multigraph circular letter machine and did a vast amount of our own printing. Members of the state departments other than our own and families of some of the state officers contributed time and labor to the cause. Numerous candidates for office assisted at their own expense, one candidate for congress alone mailing from his own headquarters at his own expense more than 10,000 circulars which he secured from this office.

The space that the newspapers devoted to the cause, out of pure patriotism, no paper being paid a cent, represented actual value amounting to many thousands of dollars and was, of course, the one greatest weapon in defense of the people.

It was a fight of the people, by the people and for the people, against misrepresentation, deception and the unlimited use of money. That the people so understood it the returns, giving a majority of more than 55,000 against the amendment, prove.

I make this public statement because I believe the people are entitled to complete information about their own affairs.

J. E. LOVE,
Chairman Corporation Com.

HARD HIT FOR THE DRUGGISTS

Must Take Out Liquor Licenses to Sell Intoxicants in Guise of Perfumes, Essences, Etc.

Washington, July 15.—Sections of the country which receive their intoxicanting stimulants in the guise of perfumes, essences, medicines or drugs, were delivered a body blow yesterday by Commissioner Cabell of the internal revenue bureau, who gave out a list of more than 200 preparations which hereafter may be handled by drug stores only after the government liquor license is paid.

Treasury department officials said they believed that many of these preparations were concotced mainly for sale in "dry territory," where the prohibition laws made it impossible to obtain legally anything with a liquor flavor.

It is estimated there are 40,000 druggists in the United States, slightly more than half of whom pay the $25 yearly special tax which permits them to sell the preparations involved. Other stores which continue to vend these mixtures will now be required to pay the tax and the United States treasury will be enriched accordingly.

The Dollar.

Just a dollar on a mission sent make a lot of people glad each time a coin is spent. You pay it to the butcher for the meat to give you strength; he takes it to the grocer from whom it goes at length for some pretty bit of cloth or lace his better half to buy, or help to get her summer hat to make her rival sigh. The dry goods man sent on the coin to pay the market bill, and though the coin is often spent it stays a dollar still, and every time 'tis spent at home some act of good is done; in booming local industries it's bound to make them run. But if you take the shining coin and break the local chain, the chances are that from afar 'twill not return again. If once it passes out of town the butcher and baker, the grocer and the dry goods man, the furniture man and carpenter, the wagon man and blacksmith, the shoe man and the printer, every one will lose the chance to touch the coin ere the setting of the sun. Just keep the little coin at home just keep it moving well, and every time it changes hands somebody's goods 'twill sell. That single little dollar has thus a wonderous power to make somebody happy a dozen times an hour. It pays the bill and wards off ill and ne'er its power relaxes, to soothe the doctor, but the coal and pay for clothes and taxes.—Ex.

Mr. J. R. Chandler, prominent citizen of Francis, who has large farm interests on the Canadian river in this county, was an apprecited visitor at the office of the News. As has been his annual custom he handed over several dollars on subscriptions.

Mr. Chandler declares that since there has been ample rain throughout this section that he had never seen a better all round prospect for crops. He related that he had eighty acres individual crop of cotton, and which he believed thoroughly, would make sixty bales of cotton, unless the worms and bugs interferred, and he did not contemplate much danger this year from such pests. He estimated that he would get 3000 bushels of corn from his sixty acres of corn land. Mr. Chandler's farm is situated on the river and is one of the best in this county.

PROMINENT HOLDENVILLE CATTLE MAN TO MAKE HOME HERE

Mr. H. L. Hoffman of Holdenville was in Ada yesterday in interest of new location for future residence. He is a cattle man of prominence, being well known all over the prairie between Mt. Vernon and Sulphur Springs, Tex., and his family is well known many years ago in each of those towns, and counties there around. He desires to come to Ada for the two-fold reason, being near the Ada oil mills, on account of cattle feed, and be near the state normal for the benefit of his children and the society of his family.

It is understood that he did not succeed in finding a house in the city large enough for his requirements. It is probable that he will buy and build at an early date.

LOOKING FOR STOLEN PROPERTY

Deputy Sheriff Fred Williams of Ardmore was in town today looking after some stolen property.

On April the twenty-fourth two horses and saddles were stolen from a negro church on Caddo about eighteen miles west of Ardmore. The horses were turned loose at Ravia and one them has been recovered. The saddles it is reported were brought to Ada and sold by two white men by the name of Press Morgan and Hiram Mundell.

The two men mentioned are now under arrest at Ardmore, but on a different charge, no complaint having as yet, been made in this case.

It is said Morgan and Mundell sold the saddles here to Evans and Coffman Hardware Co.

Marvin Coming.

Marvin Brown, one of Oklahoma's socialist leaders will arrive Sunday from Oklahoma City for a days' visit with his family, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Brown. Marvin would be called a progressive socialist; or an insurgent. In his paper, the Industrial Democrat, he has been exposing some of the rottenness and corruption among so called socialist leaders in the state, and they got mad enough to fire him out of the "ring." But Marvin is still a socialist, and if there is such a thing as a good socialist, Marvin is that sort.

His family will accompany him home on his return Monday.

BRYAN'S ASSOCIATE FOR THE U. S. SENATE

ASSOCIATE EDITOR OF "COMMONER" FILES NOMINATION PAPERS

Lincoln, Neb., July 15.—Richard L Metcalf, associate editor of Bryan's Commoner, today filed with the secl retary of state as a candidate for the democratic nomination for United States senator. It is understood that at the request of Mr. Bryan, William B. Price withdrew from the race. Price has cast his strength for Metcalfe and was one of the signers of his petition.

This leaves Congressman Hitchcock, owner of the Omaha World-Herald and former employer of Mr. Metcalfe, as the latter's only opponent for the nomination.

Mr. Metcalfe's candidacy, it is expected, will aid in uniting the two factions of the democratic party, which have divided over the county option question. Mr. Metcalfs has the support of a number of anti-county option leaders, as well as the county option supporters.

SEMINOLE HAS SHOOTING SCRAPE

Dr. Hall of Earlboro Received Two Wounds—Not Serious—Arrest Made.

Seminole, Okla., July 15.—In a shooting scrape which occurred here at 6 o'clock this evening, Dr. W. F. Hall of Earlboro was shot twice, one of the bullets striking him in the arm and the other just below the collar bone. Neither wound is serious. John Holden, a barber, did the shooting. He was arrested by City Marshal Rich and taken to the county jail at Wewoka tonight.

According to the statement of City Marshal Rich, Hall and a man by the name of Tom Wright, who lives at Wewoka, were standing in front of a pool hall in which Holden runs a one-chair barber shop. Hall and Wright were having an altercation and Holden went out to interfere when Hall slapped him. Holden went back in the shop and getting a pistol fired through the screen of the window, striking Hall twice. The affair caused no little excitement.

PARENTS PRAYERS WERE ANSWERED

Family Thinks Him Cured—A Miracle—Direct Result of Their Prayers.

Kansas City, July 15.—Eugene Bell and his wife, of this city, believe a miracle has been performed upon their son, Paul, nine years old. Paul has been helpless for a week with infantile paralysis. His father, an unordained minister of the Church of God, and other members of that church have been trying the prayer cure on the boy. They were praying at his bedside at daybreak this morning when Paul awoke. At seven the patient arose from his bed and walked to the breakfast table and ate. He could raise his arms almost as freely as before the attack. The right leg, useless for a week, supported him. His family believes him cured—a miracle, the direct result of their prayers.

El Paso, Tex., July 15.—A message from the Western Union operator at Bisbee, Ariz., received here at 9 o'clock tonight, said a great flood was sweeping down upon the town and that he was forced to abandon his wire. Bisbee is now cut off from communication. The town is built in a narrow canyon. The business section was badly damaged by a cloudburst two years ago.

"BLUEBEARD" STILL IN HIDING

Efforts to Find Dr. Crippen Have Proven Unavailing.

London, July 15.—The police of London are without any clew as to the whereabouts of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen or Ethel Clara Leneve, his typist, whom they are seeking in the belief that they may be able to clear up the mystery surrounding the body of a woman which was found badly mutilated in the cellar of the doctor's home in Hilldrop Crescent, North London. The Police and the detectives of Scotland Yard still are of the belief that the dead woman was the wife of Dr. Crippen and that she was murdered and buried in the cellar in the hope of hiding the crime.

REPUBLICANS HEAR GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATE

Hon. Joe McNeal, candidate for republican nomination for governor, made a straight from the shoulder republican speech yesterday afternoon to a comparatively small crowd at the tent on Broadway.

He attacked the democratic administration, saying in effect that about sixty per cent of public money, went for political pie, while only about 40 per cent paid the actual expenses of the state.

He claimed that a democratic administration was keeping millions of dollars of wealth out of the state and that it was a sad mistake that they carried the state. It was his opinion that there is natural wealth here enough to give Ada a population of a hundred thousand. He pointed to other states not as large and not blessed with the unbounded natural resources having greater cities, greater wealth and greater population but did not compare the ages of the states.

He based his claims to the honor of governorship, on his being a successful financier and now a retired capitalist ready to give his entire time to being governor.

STATE CANDIDATE ARRESTED FOR DISTRIBUTING CARDS

Against City Law to Hand Out Cards. Such Law in Ada Would Make the Candidates Lonesome.

Houston, Tex., July 15.—Ex-State Senator H. Bascom Thomas, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, was taken before Chief of Police George Ellis. He was distributing campaign cards among the voters at the time of his arrest and the occasion of his arrest was an alleged violation of the city ordinance which prohibits the distribution of circulars on the streets.

When Mr. Thomas' identity was made known to Chief Ellis he was ordered released, but was warned to discontinue the distribution of his cards.

It was later declared by members of the city legal department that the ordinance prohibiting the distribution of circulars and similar literature on the streets did not apply in the case of Mr. Thomas and that his arrest was a mistake.

WILL WALK TO THE GPY HILLS.

Two Fair Pedestrians Will Not Be Outdone by Sterner Sex in Walkfest.

Enid, Okla., July 14.—The athletic girls of Enid do not like to be outdone by the male pedestrians so Miss Madeline McCutcheon of 620 Maple and Miss Clara Conway of the "Jungles" eleven miles west of the city, have arranged for a sixty mile jaunt to the Gyp Hills. The young ladies will leave today and expect to be gone five days. They will take with them cooking utensils and all necessary paraphernalia for camping on the way.

Though they intend to make their way by easy stages the undertaking is in every way a novel one and the young ladies are well prepared for the journey. The trip has been planned for some time and it was agreed recently that the start was to be made from Miss Conway's home this morning.

WILL VIEW THE NAVY FOR THE FIRST TIME

Pres. Taft to Review Atlantic Fleet For First Time Since President.

Beverly, Mass., July 16.—President Taft will have his first view of the Atlantic battleship fleet as commander-in-chief of the armed forces of the United States on August 5th off Provincetown, Mass. Fifteen warships will be assembled there and the president will review them from the bridge of his yacht, the Mayflower.

Taft is going to Provincetown to deliver an address at the dedication of the Pilgrim monument, the cornerstone of which was laid two years ago by Roosevelt.

The battleships will be assembled in honor of the occasion. There will be a land parade of sailors and marines and probably several regiments of soldiers.

Fished Weighed 70 Pounds.

Wewoka, Okla., July 14.—John W. Seals of Schoolton, while on a recent fishing trip along the North Canadian near his home, caught a catfish that weighed 70 pounds. It was so long that when it was strung on a pole and carried on the shoulders of two men, the head stood up as high as their heads and the tail dragged on the ground. There was enough meat on the body to stock a good sized butcher shop and the head, after being stripped of meat, weighed sixteen pounds. The fish was caught with a gig. A number of big fish have been caught there this summer, but this monster broke all records.

PITMAN WAS FOUND STARVING

Washington, July 14.—Confined in a filthy cell, 6x5 feet, unfed save by charitable strangers, William Pittman, an American captured by the Madriz government forces near Bluefields, was found in an overcrowded local prison at Managua, Nicaragua, by Consul Olivares yesterday.

The consul, who is stationed at that point, telegraphed the state department today that he visited Pittman, discovered the revolting conditions and through protests forced Dr. Madriz to furnish the adventurous American better prison accommodations.

Pittman, whose relatives live at Cambridge, Mass., told Consul Olivares that he left Greytown, July 4, that since then his captors have failed to provide him with food, leaving him dependent for subsitsence upon charity. Pittman was starving.

MURRAY WRITES HASKELL.

William H. Murray has issued a noteworthy answer to Gov. Haskell's famous letter wherein the governor took umbrage at his old friend, Mr. Murray, for the latters' references in a open letter to Will Linn, wherein there was made very critical references to Hon. Fred Branson, the chairman of the state election board, and the chairman of the state executive committee. It is very probable that this open letter of Murray's to the governor will be more or less effective on the democratic politics of Oklahoma.

It is regrettable, both from the standpoint of the weal of the party, and on account of the number of the mutual friends of the governor and Mr. Murray, and the general apparent inclination to maintain confidence in the election machinery of the state that there exist such imminent situation of bad political blood between the governor and the one who would be governor.

Indians May Build Towns.

Clinton, Okla., July 15.—A big meeting of the Indians at Big Jake's Crossing has been held by the chief's for the purpose of considering the building of several Indian towns, in which no one may live but Indians and where they will have their own stores, councilmen, carpenters, doctors, lawyers and conduct business just the same as the white man.

The idea of building Indian towns met with the approbation of the chiefs. If carried out it would have a tendency to stop the Indians from their roving habits and make better citizens of them.

At the present time few of the red men raise chickens, for example as they leave home with their families for months at a time, and no one would be left to tend to them.

Townsites could easily be procured, as the Indians already own the necessary land, and farms adjoining the townsite could be cut into small farms for their benefit.

A trial of this kind would prove a novelty and the educated Indians believe they could run it successfully if given the opportunity.

HEAT KILLS TWO IN CHICAGO

Humidity Intense and Many Prostrations Result—Crime and Insanity Increase.

Chicago, Ill., July 15.—Sultry weather that hung like a blanket over Chicago snuffed out the lives of two persons today and made living a torture for the survivors. The humidity was intense and there were many prostrations. Crime and insanity are one the increase to an alarming extent. and physicians say both are largely attributable to the long siege of heat which has made everybody irritable.

COMING HOME.

Though the members of the Falloway family are deeply attached to one another, they have carried to the superlative degree the theory of letting one another alone. Their idea is that the only way to be truly happy is not to be perpetually demanding information as to one another's movements and plans. The result is that no Falloway knows at all about the other Falloways.

This was why Sumner Falloway had a sudden idea in the middle of a golf game. He had been west for two months on business and was breaking off the traveling habit by degrees. Instead of landing in Chicago at once and immersing himself in work inside of 15 minutes, after the habit of most men, he had dropped off his train when it neared his golf club because the day was fine.

The idea which had clutched him while he was playing golf that day was that probably his father and mother had arrived home from their winter in California and the family house was open again. The elder Falloways were due at just about this time. If so, it would be a joy to go home instead of to the club, where he had lived while in town that winter.

Hastening indoors, he called his home telephone number, and after the usual delays was told cold-bloodedly by a meat market that it was not the Falloway residence. To be sure it might have the old Falloway telephone number, but nevertheless it was interested only in chops and steaks. Disgruntled, Sumner concluded that instead of going through the red tape of calling the information bureau he would save time by calling up the Bremers, who lived next door to the Falloway home.

When he got the Bremers there was nobody in but a foreign maid, who was hard of comprehension. Reducing his inquiries to simple form he learned from Freda that there were "people in the house next door," and sighed relievedly. It would be fine to see his father and mother again after so many months, and it would be pleasant to have his own roof over his wandering head once more.

Then he finished his golf game, had dinner with some friends, and, once more clutching his faithful suitcase, started for home.

There were no lights downstairs, but through the hall window on the second floor he could see the reflection from lights in the rear. Probably they were just beginning to get settled. Whistling he ran up the steps and tried his latchkey. The key turned, but the door was bolted inside. That was odd, so early in the evening, too!

Then he rang the bell. There was no answer. Suddenly he comprehended. In everybody's absence thieves were living there and sacking the house! Anyhow, he was going to see what was going on inside. He remembered a certain basement window that could be opened. Crawling in and sprawling on the coal pile, he stumbled carefully up to the ground floor and stealthily to the second.

The house seemed deserted and deadly still. But at the second floor landing he saw the light again, and on tiptoe he ventured toward it. The door of a bedroom was open, and he walked in. To all appearances he was in a hospital room. There were no rugs, curtains or fripperies, and the white-capped nurse who arose in alarm from her chair by the bed added the crowning touch. She and Sumner stared in astonishment at each other.

"Wh-what's happened?" he gasped.

"Nothing," said the nurse, a little crisply; "but scarlet fever is happening—didn't you know? What are you doing here?"

Then she told him the story. It seemed the Hopkinses on the other side of the Falloways from the Bremer's had a relative who had come to visit them, bringing her little boy and the little boy had brought along a case of scarlet fever. The Hopkinses, possessing three small children on their own account, in their panic had begged from Sumner's brother Fred, who was married and lived elsewhere, the temporary use of the vacant Falloway house for their afflicted relative. As the elder Falloways had decided to stay away another month Fred had granted the Hopkinses' request. The scarlet-fever boy, his mother and a nurse were occupying the quarantined Falloway home.

As it apeared, so did Sumner. When he, after an agonized and heated talk with the powers that be, learned that he was indeed at home and home to stay for quite a time, his remarks were vigorous and profuse.

At present he is still in quarantine, waiting to be fumigated and released. Daily, over the telephone with its new number, he reproaches his charitable brother Fred, who has an abominable sense of humor and so is not soothing to talk to!

Kidney disease advances so rapidly that many a person is firmly in its grasp before aware of its progress. Prompt attention should be given the slightest symptom of kidney disorder. If there is a dull pain in the back, headaches, dizzy spells or a tired, worn-out feeling, or if the urine is dark, foul-smelling, irregular and attended with pain, procure a good kidney remedy at once.

Your townspeople recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read the statement of this Ada citizen.

Mrs. M. S. Kyser, 502 West Main St., Ada, Okla., says: "Last summer I suffered a great deal from a dull heavy ache through my back and hips. I thought it was due to a cold settling on my kidneys and that it would soon disappear. The pains gradually became moore intense and other symptoms of kidney trouble set in. I at length decided to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, and procured a box. After taking a few doses I felt much better and I continued using this remedy until every symptom of my trouble had disappeared. I am glad to state that I have had no return of kidney complaint."
